

Ask yourself three questions. If you answer any with YES, it's probably time to write a report.

1

The event was unusual. If someone asked me if I had experienced something unexpected, I would most likely tell them about this event.

2

A heads-up call about the event would be appropriate. I believe that other Swiss Air Force pilots could benefit from hearing about my experience.

3

The event or observation has the potential to endanger an aircraft, its occupants or others, and is worth thinking about changes in procedures, directives or organisational structures.
