

Major General Ivo BURGNER

Head of Swiss NNSC Delegation

Date of birth 15 May 1968
University degree Career officer with federal diploma (ETH)
Service address FDFA - Courier Section
Panmunjom - Korea
3003 Bern

Current function

Major General Burgner is head of the Swiss delegation to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission (NNSC) in Panmunjom, Korea. He is responsible for carrying out the tasks defined by the ceasefire agreement. On political matters he reports to the Political Affairs Division II of the FDFA and, on military and support matters, to the Joint Operations Command, via Swiss Armed Forces International Command (SWISSINT).

Career

1993 Captain, commander of a mountain infantry company
1997 Major GS, chief of operations in the staff of a territorial brigade
1999 Lieutenant Colonel GS, commander of a territorial brigade staff battalion
2002 Deputy Chief of Staff operations in a territorial brigade
2004 Deputy Chief of Staff training and education in a territorial region
2009 Colonel GS, commander of Patrouille des Glaciers
2022 Major General, Head of the Swiss delegation to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission (NNSC), Korea

Functions

1992 Swiss Military College, military academy at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Zurich
1995 Unit career officer, mountain infantry recruit schools 11/211
1999 Commanding Officer Swiss Headquarters Support Unit (OSCE), BiH
2000 Deputy commander, mountain infantry recruit schools 11/211
2002 Deputy commander, Armed Forces Mountain Centre of Competence
2003 National Contingent Commander Swisscoy, KFOR, Kosovo
2008 Senior Course 113, NATO Defense College, Rome
2009 Deputy Chief of land forces doctrine in the land forces staff
2011 Deputy Chief of training and education in the land forces staff
2012 Commander of the Armed Forces Mountain Centre of Competence
2016 Deputy commander of the Infantry Training Unit
2019 Deputy commander of the Armed Forces Training Centre