

Major General Roland FAVRE

Senior Staff Officer at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy (GCSP) in Geneva

Date of birth: 25 November 1958
Academic title: MSC EPFL, math
Office address: Maison de la paix, Chemin Eugène-Rigot 2D,
CH-1202 Geneva

Current function

Major General Favre is a Senior Staff Officer at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy (GCSP) in Geneva. He represents the GCSP in various areas, such as at conferences, in seminars, workshops or podiums, both in Switzerland and abroad. He works towards expanding the GCSP's networks of interest, in particular regarding policy and the private sector, but also civil and military security partners. He supports management in the development and implementation of strategies. Major General Favre is part of the General Staff of the Swiss Armed Forces.

Career

1988 Captain, commander mountain rifle company
1993 Major General Staff
1997 Commander mountain infantry battalion
2001 Lieutenant colonel General Staff, assistant chief of staff in fortress brigade staff
2002 Colonel General Staff, chief of staff in fortress brigade
2004 Brigadier general, commander mountain infantry brigade
2008 Major general, head of Armed Forces Logistics Organisation
2010 Commander Territorial Region 1
2018 Senior Staff Officer at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy

Functions

1982 Planning Directorate in General Staff
1988 Royal Military College of Science Shrivenham, RMCS, Great Britain
1990 Postgraduate in military operational analysis research at Cranfield Institute of Technology / Faculty of Military Science, Shrivenham, Great Britain
1992 Head of financial service in the Federal Finance Administration
2000 Rapporteur in personal staff of Head of the Federal Department of Finance