

Brigadier General Alexander KOHLI

Commander Mechanised Brigade 4

Date of birth 21 March 1967
Academic title Dr. sc. tech. ETH Zurich
Service address Oristalstrasse 100, 4410 Liestal

Current function

Brigadier General Kohli commands Mechanised Brigade 4. He is responsible for basic readiness of his staffs and forces and is accountable to the Commander Land Forces.

The Commander Mechanised Brigade 4 is responsible for training his brigade to plan and conduct operations for warding off military attacks and for civil affairs support operations in Switzerland.

Career

1996 Captain, reconnaissance company commander
2000 Major General Staff, GS officer in mountain division and then in armoured brigade staff
2004 Lieutenant colonel General Staff, reconnaissance company commander
2009 Lieutenant colonel General Staff, assistant chief of staff operations in infantry brigade staff
2015 Colonel General Staff, chief of staff of infantry brigade
2016 Brigadier General, commander infantry brigade
2018 Commander Mechanised Brigade 4

Functions

1993 Case manager for planning, access constructions and hydraulic engineering, Engineering Company
1995 Research associate, Laboratory of Hydraulics, ETH Zurich
1998 Head of Division for Geo Information, Engineering Company
2001 Head of Division for overall planning and development, co-owner Engineering Company
2016 Self-employed consultant
2016 Commander of an Infantry Brigade (part-time)