

Brigadier General Daniel KRAUER

Head of Military Intelligence Service and the Armed Forces Preventive Protection Service

Date of birth 1971
Academic qualifications Civil Engineering Diploma HTL
Master of Security and Defence Management
Office address Papiermühlestrasse 20, CH-3003 Bern

Current function

Brigadier General Krauer is the Chief of the Military Intelligence Service and the Armed Forces Preventive Protection Service. He is also responsible for the technical supervision of all armed forces staffs and units with intelligence functions, and his organisational unit is accountable to the Chief of Joint Operations Command.

The Chief of Military Intelligence receives direct orders from the Chief of the Armed Forces and is supervised by the DDPS and by Parliament.

Career

1998 Captain, Commander of a sapper company
2002 Major GS, Head of supplies in a field division
2004 Lieutenant Colonel GS, Head of Logistics Management in the staff of an infantry brigade
2007 Commander of a pontonier battalion
2011 Head of Readiness in a territorial region
2012 Deputy Chief of Staff Logistics of an infantry brigade
2016 Colonel GS, Deputy Chief of Staff in an armed forces staff section
2020 Brigadier General, Chief of Military Intelligence Service & Armed Forces Preventive Protection Service

Functions

1999 Unit instructor at an engineer recruit school
2000 Deployment as an Pioneer Platoon Leader for SWISSCOY
2001 Class teacher at an engineer officer school
2006 Deputy commander of engineer schools
2010 Group leader and staff coach at General Staff School
2015 Project manager for doctrine development
2016 Chief of Military Doctrine