

What is the best way to mark unexploded ordnance?

Easily visible markings, which can clearly be seen against the surrounding environment, help us to find reported unexploded ordnance quickly.

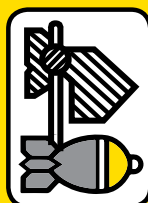

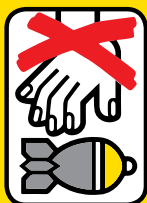

Examples of visible markings include marker tape, a piece of cloth or a coloured plastic bag clamped in-between rocks, or...

.... tied to a stick or...

... a plastic bottle attached to a stick, a tree or a bush.

Thank you very much for your cooperation!