

Brigadier General Martino GHILARDI

Commander Command Support Brigade 41

Academic qualifications Career officer with federal diploma (ETH)
Executive Master of Business Administration
(EMBA), HTW Chur

Office address Barracks HQ, CH-8180 Bülach

Current function

Brigadier General Ghilardi is in charge of the Command Support Brigade 41/SKS. He is responsible for the training and education of his staffs and troops and reports to the Chief of Cyber Command.

The Command Support Brigade 41 is the specialised unit for information and communication technology in the Swiss Armed Forces. It operates the communication and C2-infrastructure along with the electronic warfare systems for the Armed Forces.

Career

1998 Captain, Commander of a mountain heavy artillery company
2002 Major GS, Deputy Chief of Operations in the staff of a mountain division
2004 Lieutenant Colonel GS, Chief of Operations in the staff of a mountain infantry brigade
2005 Commander of an HQ battalion
2010 Chief of Operations in the staff of a command support brigade
2011 Deputy Chief of Staff in the staff of a command support brigade
2016 Colonel GS, General Staff Officer in the Command Staff
2018 Operations Officer in the Joint Operations Command Staff
2023 Brigadier General, Commander of a Command Support Brigade

Functions

1997 Swiss Military College, Military Academy at ETH Zurich
2000 Unit Career Officer in a mountain infantry recruit school
2003 Juniors Staff Officers' Course in Stockholm (SWE) and in Reading (GBR)
2007 Chief of an HQ division state government of the Command Support Brigade Staff
2011 GS course at the National Defence Academy in Vienna (AUT)
2012 Group leader at the General Staff School
2015 Commander of the Directional Beam School and Commander of a military training area
2020 Chief of Military Doctrine in the Armed Forces Staff