

Brigadier General Thomas A. FREY

Commandant Command Support Training Unit

Academic title Federal Diploma in Physical Education and Sports Teaching, ETH Zurich

Office address Überlandstrasse 255, 8600 Dübendorf

Current function

Brigadier General Frey in charge of Command Support Training Unit and is responsible for armed forces training relating to command support, telematics and signals. He is accountable to the Chief of Training and Education Command.

Commandant Command Support Training Unit is in charge of all command support, signal and electronic operations schools.

Career

- 2000 Major GS, Head of Training in a fortress brigade
- 2001 Lieutenant Colonel GS, Commander of a mountain infantry battalion
- 2004 Head of the domain Infantry in the Land Forces' Operations Staff
- 2007 Deputy Chief of Staff Intelligence in an armoured brigade
- 2011 Deputy Chief of Staff Training in a territorial region
- 2013 Colonel GS
- 2015 Staff Officer assigned to the commander of a territorial region
- 2016 Chief of Staff in a territorial region and a territorial division
- 2020 Brigadier General, Commander of a Command Support Brigade
- 2023 Commandant Command Support Training Unit

Functions

- 1998 Career officer in the infantry
- 2004 Infantry Captains Career Course at the United States Army Infantry School, Fort Benning (USA)
- 2005 Staff Officer assigned to the Commander of the Infantry Training Centre
- 2006 Chief of Land Forces Tests
- 2009 Deputy Commander and Chief of Staff at a school for single-term infantry conscripts, and Commander of the Zurich-Reppischtal military training area
- 2012 Commander of a school for single-term conscripts and commander of the Aarau military training area
- 2016 Commander of the Bachelor's programme at the ETH Zurich's Military Academy (MILAC)
- 2018 Chief of Training Projects and Steering for Training and Education Command Staff, and Deputy Chief of Staff for the Training and Education Command