

Major General Simon MÜLLER

Chief of Cyber Command

Academic qualifications Physicist with federal diploma, ETH Zurich
Career Officer with federal diploma, ETH Zurich
Office address Stauffacherstrasse 65, CH-3003 Bern

Current function

Major General Müller is the Chief of Cyber Command. As a member of the Armed Forces Command, he reports directly to the Chief of the Armed Forces.

The Cyber Command is responsible for mission-critical ICT and the provision of services in cyber and electromagnetic space.

Career

2005 Captain, Commander of a light anti-aircraft company
2009 Major GS, General Staff Officer in the Staff of an anti-aircraft brigade
2012 Lieutenant Colonel GS, Commander of a mobile anti-aircraft battalion
2015 Commanding Officer, Air Force Staff
2018 Colonel GS, Deputy Chief of Staff Planning of Land Forces Staff
2020 Deputy Chief of Staff Operations of Land Forces Staff
2024 Major General, Chief of Cyber Command

Functions

2003 Diploma course of Studies, Military Academy at ETH Zurich
2005 Unit Career Officer and class teacher, Officer Candidate School, Air Defence
2010 Deputy Commander and Chief of Planning, Combined Air Defence Command
2013 Tactical Consultant, Thales Suisse SA
2015 Assigned Staff Officer of the Chief of the Armed Forces Staff
2017 Commander of the Command, Control and Technical Systems Centre, Land Forces
2021 Deputy Project Manager Cyber Command, Armed Forces Staff