

Brigadier General Christoph RODUNER

Commander of Mechanised Brigade 11

Academic title Career officer with federal diploma (ETHZ)
Service address Kasernenstrasse 108, Geb KO, 7000 Chur

Current function

Brigadier General Roduner commands Mechanised Brigade 11. He is responsible for the basic readiness of his staffs and units, and reports to the Commander of the Land Forces.

The Commander of Mechanised Brigade 11 is responsible for training his brigade in how to plan and conduct operations to avert military attacks and to safeguard Switzerland's means of existence.

Career

1997 Captain, Commander of a heavy infantry company
2001 Major GS, General Staff Officer in a staff of a field division
2004 Lieutenant Colonel GS, Chief of Training and Education in a staff of an infantry brigade
2007 Commander of an infantry battalion
2011 Deputy Chief of Staff Operations in a staff of an armoured brigade
2011 Colonel GS, Deputy Commander of an armoured brigade
2013 Chief of Staff of an armoured brigade
2018 Deputy Chief of Staff Operations of the Land Forces Staff
2019 Chief of Staff and Deputy Commander of the Land Forces Staff
2023 Brigadier General, Commander of a mechanised brigade

Functions

1998 Swiss Military College, Military Academy at ETH Zurich
2001 Unit career officer, infantry recruit and NCO schools
2004 Career officer at Walenstadt Infantry Training Center
2005 Armor Captains Career Course in Fort Knox (USA)
2011 Group Leader at General Staff school
2013 Commander of an infantry recruit school and military training area
2015 Commander of a military leadership school for infantry soldiers
2018 Commander of Infantry Unit Training
2019 Commander of Training Courses at the Armed Forces Training Center
2022 Commander of the Armed Forces Professional NCO school