

Major General Peter WANNER

Defence Attaché in Paris

Academic title Executive MBA, UAS Bern
Office address Rodtmattstrasse 110, 3003 Bern

Current function

Major General Wanner is defence attaché at the Swiss Embassy in Paris. He safeguards Switzerland's security policy and armed forces interests in France, Belgium and Luxembourg. He is accountable to the Head of International Relations in the Armed Forces Staff.

Career

1988 Captain, commander rations supply company
1992 Captain General Staff, GS officer in field division
1996 Major General Staff, commander supply battalion
2000 Colonel General Staff, assistant chief of staff for logistics in territorial division
2003 Commander armed forces staff section
2008 Brigadier General, chief of staff to Chief of the Armed Forces
2010 Defence attaché training
2011 Defence attaché to Italy and Israel with residence in Rome (ITA)
2013 Head of International Relations Defence
2016 Major General, defence attaché to the United States of America and Canada with residence in Washington D.C. (USA)
2020 Military Representative at NATO Headquarters and the EU, Brussels (BEL)
2024 Major General, defence attaché in Paris accredited to France, Belgium and Luxembourg (FRA)

Functions

1991 Military Academy
1996 Assigned staff officer to Inspector of Federal Office for Logistic Troops
1998 Member of «Armed Forces XXI» project core team
1999 NATO Defence College, Rome (ITA)
2000 Head of «Armed Forces XXI» project core team
2003 Commander armed forces staff section